Disclaimer: Changing Your Clothes only deals in very gently worn name brand children's clothing. Some examples are GAP, Old Navy, The Children's Place, OshKosh, Land's End, etc. We cannot accept items with holes, stains, visible knee wear, missing buttons, broken zippers, or excessive wash wear (see clothing guidelines at www.changingyourclothes.com). Please check your items before sending and be sure they are of such quality that another parent would want their child to wear them. Also, we do not accept off/discount brands. Examples include No Boundaries, Route 66, Faded Glory, Simply Basic, Fred's Kids, etc. Any items that do not meet the standards listed above will be donated to a local charity. Changing Your Clothes will inspect the items and assign a point value which will be credited to your account.

I understand that the items I submit to Changing Your Clothes become the property of said company. I understand that the point value assigned to the items is at the sole discretion of the company and will be consistent with similar items on their website. Furthermore, I understand the terms and conditions of submitting my items and the requirements listed above. If upon inspection by Changing Your Clothes my items are found to be of inferior quality, I understand that they will not be returned to me but that I will receive notification of the reason/defect via email.
